Upon credit to such Second Client (Payee), Convera and any Convera Affiliate shall treat the funds transferred via the Outbound Payment as funds of such Second Client and not funds of Client, and Convera shall have no obligation to return the Outbound Payment to Client or otherwise accept Client's instructions with respect to such amounts credited to such Second Client. Accordingly, in addition to all other remedies, each Party shall be entitled to seek specific performance and injunctive or other equitable relief as a remedy for any breach of those provisions. Client and Convera agree to waive any requirement for a bond in connection with the granting of any such injunctive or other equitable relief.

In the event of any conflict or ambiguity between the provisions of these Terms and Conditions and any other agreement (e.g., a previously executed confidentiality agreement), the provisions of these Terms and Conditions shall control. It is expressly agreed by Client that any indemnification obligation in effect and contemplated in any prior agreement shall be extinguished as of the date the Application is signed by Client.

H. Termination and Survival. Unless otherwise contemplated in any Addendum, if applicable, either Party may terminate these Terms and Conditions with or without cause at any time upon providing written notice to the other Party. The provisions in these Terms and Conditions relating to indemnification in Section 3, the Online Payment System security in Section 4, and all of Sections 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, 13, 14 and 15 shall survive completion of Convera's Services to Client and termination of these Terms and Conditions.

At no time shall either Convera or Client make commitments for or in the name of the other.

L. Publicity. Neither Party may use the Party's name in news releases, articles, brochures, marketing materials, advertisements and other publicity or investor promotions without the written consent of the other Party.

N. Waiver. Any failure by either Party to require strict performance by the other of any provision of these Terms and Conditions shall not constitute a waiver of such provision or thereafter affect the Party's full rights to require strict performance.
